SALMAGUNDI.

TO-DAY'S DOINGS IN THIS TOWN

Personal Notes and Brief Mention of Many Things.

THE WEATHER—For Ohio, Tuesday, fair, warmer.

David Snyder is in Mansfield.

Mrs. L. Ellery is visiting in Cleveland.

Mrs. Wm. Weaver is visiting her sister in Canton this week.

J. S. Marquis, piano tuner, will be in Massillon about Feb. 1.

Philip Huber, of Akron, is the guest of his cousin, Henry Huber.

Dr. S. P. Barnes has been called to Dell Royton professional business.

Mrs. Jos. Sprenger fell on an icy walk yesterday severely injuring her head.

Miss Mamie M. Brown is spending a week in the country with her friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas, from south of the city, are guests of E. J. Wernet.

The Harmonia band is preparing for a concert to be given in the near future.

H. R. Bennett, of Navarre, and Jake Simon, of Canton, were in the city today.

Stauffer Shanks and Harry Winterhalter, of Canton, spent last evening calling in this city.

The marriage of Joseph Wantz to Mary Wentzel, occurred at 8 o'clock this morning in St. Mary's.

The earnings of the W. & L. E., in 1889, were $913,070; in 1890, $1,162,748; increase, $249,678.

Louis Moser has not resigned his position with Dielhenn Brothers, as stated in the last night's paper.

Elizabeth Whipple has been appointed administratrix of the estate of George Miller of Jackson township.

James A. Hackett will leave this evening to visit Piqua and Cincinnati, where furniture exhibits will be given for a week.

Dr. J. F. Gardner has returned from a week's sojourn in Cleveland, where he attended a series of operations by Dr. Weber.

At the Hotel Conrad: L. C. Royer, of Dayton; Charles R. Frazer, Canton; Geo. B. Wright, agent of the Broom-maker company.

Sneak thieves entered Willenborg & Braun's slaughter house, last night, removing pudding, sausage and other portable property.

Mrs. Joseph K. Russell, the Misses Russell and Mrs. V. S. Russell will give a large reception Friday afternoon, from 3 to 5 o'clock.

J. J. Clark, of Canton, is conspicuous among the candidates for commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, department of Ohio.

Joseph Ess and Frank Clementz have gone to Cleveland and from there, with Mr. Clementz's sister, will go to Sharon, Pa., for a short vacation.

John H. Williams is not at the Galion convention of the Knights of Labor, which convenes to-day. E. Gleitsman, the other delegate, is present.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snyder, of Quality Hill, a daughter. In consequence of this happy event, visitors at the office of Hess, Snyder & Co. all enjoy fragrant Havanas, to-day.

Jacob Poorman, a well known and prominent farmer living five miles southwest of this city, has just completed an elegant residence, which is now occupied. Mrs. C. Poorman, mother of Mr. Poorman and Mrs. Graham, of this place, is one of the occupants.

W. H. Brown, late of Devizes, England, took a position yesterday, in Russell & Co.'s engineering department, having come directly from Great Britain to Massillon, for that purpose. Mr. Brown's father is of the firm of Brown & May. He himself was with Yarrow & Co., of London, torpedo boat builders, for four years, and left Messrs. Plenty & Son, marine engineers, of Newburg, England, to come to America.

The Alliance people are up in arms because Mt. Union declines to be satisfied with one postoffice at Alliance, but insists upon having a little baby postoffice at the center of learning. In consequence of this Assistant Postmaster General Whitfield writes: "When you can settle your sectional difficulties, so as to have all the people agree as to the limits of the free delivery service, your request for its establishment will receive proper consideration, but it is not probable that anything can be done during this fiscal year." This means that Alliance will have no letter carriers until after June 30, at the earliest.

It was shown by Mr. E. D. Wileman last evening, at the U. C. D. club meeting, that in the "golden age" of the Roman republic, about 200 B. C., lands were held in large tracts, farmed out to small operators, the labor being performed by slaves, white slaves, who, when disabled by accident or old age were hustled off to market and sold with other rubbish. The people of the state were strictly military or agricultural in occupation, no manufacturing being done, and as a consequence all farming produce was low in price. Produce from Sardinia and Sicily on arrival in Tiber, was sold to meet cost of transportation. The rich were thus enabled to live cheaply while the condition of the farmers and laborers became more miserable from year to year; through their poverty and sufferings the wealthy were the better able to hold them in subjection, so that with the first trumpet call to war thousands of "patriots" would flock to fill the ranks of the Roman legions, thus escaping from the scenes of their daily misery.

ECHOES FROM THE SHOPS.

Note and Comment on Men and Doings at Russell Co.'s.

Since so much is said concerning a new city hall, and as it seems to be the desire of most people that an opera house with a ground floor be included, and since the cost of various locations have been presented to the council, there are many who have given that subject much thought favorable to the John Ogden corner in Main street as being the best suited for the purpose in point of size and equal in other respects. What is the matter with the Ogden corner anyway?

Mr. Frank Wagner has again taken his old position at the bolt machine, in the bolt department, and the boys are glad to see his familiar figure at the old stand.

Mr. Bernard Portner, who was, as it was thought at the time, slightly injured in department H by a piece of work falling against his leg above the ankle, had an operation performed yesterday. It is said that it was the opinion of the attending physicians that it was fortunate if amputation could be avoided. Drs. Williamson and Miller attended him.

TICKS BY TELEGRAPH.

County Seat Affairs.

CANTON, Jan. 20.—Indicted prisoners were arranged in common pleas court this morning with the exception of Dr. Maxwell and Charles Schott, charged with causing the death of Lillian Borden. Their attorneys have made a motion to quash the indictment on the ground that it is not specific.

CANTON, O., Jan. 20.—Sarah E. Olds has filed papers asking for a divorce from Oscar H. Olds. The petition states that they were married in Mt. Gilead in 1874, but that since then the defendant has struck, beat and slapped plaintiff at different times.

Herbert L. Minnis was probably fatally crushed by a fall of slate in a North Industry mine this morning. He is a single man.

At the meeting of the Agricultural society on Saturday, it was decided to hold a meeting on January 30 and 31, for the purpose of revising the premium list. The next county fair will be held on September 28, 29, and 30 and October 1 and 2. Secretary Niesz said to-day that he did not know whether the board of directors would proceed to improve the grounds by additional buildings or not, owing to the likelihood of the question of removal being raised again.

Fred Fellar, the defendant in the horse sale trial heard by Justice Ringle Saturday, was bound over to the court of common pleas on the charge of having obtained money under false pretenses.

Marriage licenses have been issued to Christian Brueggemann and Magdalena Schmidtshefer of Massillon, and Thomas Wilcoxon and Hannah Ritchie, of Wayneburg.

Burglars at Canal Fulton.

Special Dispatch to The Independent.

CANAL FULTON, O., Jan. 20.—This town had a visit from burglars last night. They broke into the C. L. & W. depot and stole the agent's revolver; also entered the dwelling of Squire Ruch, where some clothing, canned fruit and meat were taken. They then entered the store and tin store of H. A. Fisher, by prying the lock on the front door, the safe was blown open and badly damaged, but no money found; they also broke into the money drawer, where some forty cents in small change was found. A couple boxes of shears and knives were all that was missing. The explosion of blowing open the safe awoke Chas. Easly, proprietor of the Easly House, who gave the alarm. Parties were soon out scouring around, but found no trace of the burglars. Two strangers were noticed around town last night, and the presumption is they are the ones, as they had inquired for the tool works and Buckmaster's smith shop, at which places they had taken braces and bits. The alarm was given about 3 a.m.

Residents of Canal Fulton, in town today, state that Landlord Easly heard the explosion, and rousing a neighbor, saw the burglars at work, and sent for reinforcements. By the time the reinforcements were all ready, the burglars had perceived the situation, and escaped down the canal bank.

The Alliance in Session.

Special Dispatch to The Independent.

GALION, O., Jan. 20.—The Farmer's Alliance is in session, with W. H. Liken of Caledonia, Ohio, in the chair, and 700 delegates present. Everything booming in Galion. The Knights of Labor are not in session yet but will be soon.

Erring Public Servants.

Special Dispatch to The Independent.

COLUMBUS, Neb., Jan. 20.—It has been discovered that ex-County Clerk Stauffer is $12,383 short. The sheriff's books can't be found, and experts are now at work on the treasurer's books.

Gone, But Not Forgotten.

Special Dispatch to The Independent.

UPPER SANDUSKY, Jan. 20.—Chas. Veith, a prominent grocer and treasurer of Crane township has fled leaving $15,000 indebtedness and 50,000 shortage.

A CITIZEN'S SYMPOSIAC.

SHALL MASSILLON HAVE A MUNICIPAL BUILDING?

Opinions Pro and Con from Prominent Taxpayers—The Use of One of the Parks as a Location Favored—The Theater Suggestion.

The proceedings of the city council show that that body is giving the question of building a new municipal building serious consideration, a committee having gone so far as to secure options upon various central sites. In conformity with its custom, when local matters are up for discussion, THE INDEPENDENT has taken the sense of a number of citizens upon the proposition. The city council has apparently worked upon the theory that it will be necessary to purchase a location, while THE INDEPENDENT is of the opinion that the south half of the north park can be used for this purpose, if it is deemed desirable. Several years ago, when a library building was projected, a report was made showing that the park could be made available without legal enlargements. THE INDEPENDENT yesterday advanced the suggestion that if a city hall enterprise actually went through, it might be as well to include in it a ground floor opera house. In seeking the opinions below, the endeavor was to ascertain the general feeling with regard to the erection of the building, the addition of a theatre, and the choice of location.

LOCATION NO OBJECT.

H. Huber—We ought to have a city building by all means. Want a fine hall; don't care about location.

Jos. Coleman—Think we can get along without it at this time. By the time we have the city bonded, as proposed, we'll have about all the tax to pay that we can stand.

D. Hemperly—Haven't given it any thought.

Frank Hemperly—We ought to have a better building than the old structure. Favor the Park Row site.

W. H. Vincent—A nice building, at a moderate cost. I'm in favor of it. The park is the place for it.

S. A. Conrad—At present would prefer to be taxed to secure factories.

WANTS A BETTER FIRE DEPARTMENT.

Chas. E. Jarvis—I'm not as much in favor of a city hall (we can get along without it) as I am for a new engine house with all the modern improvements.

Z. T. Shoemaker—We want to get some factories here first and then we'll talk city building.

John A. Shoemaker—Favor it if they put an opera house or storerooms on the ground floor, so that the city would have some revenue from it. The park is the place.

Frank A. Brown—We ought to have it. If the park can be appropriated for the purpose it should be used. If we must buy a site I'd favor Park Row.

Fred H. Snyder—Am in favor of a city building; always was. It should include the fire department and all city offices. The Zepp property would be the most preferable, if it's large enough.

ALL SORTS OF IDEAS.

J. C. F. Putman—Not in favor of the project.

C. B. Allman—You may put me down as opposed.

F. J. Keller—We can do without it for a while yet.

Jas. A. Hackett—Favor it, and prefer the park for a site.

Chas. E. Oberlin—Am in favor of it. Prefer the Zepp property.

John G. Warwick—A city building is needed. I'm in favor of it, and we should have a good one.

Wm. A. Pietzcker—It's needed badly. Favor the park for a site.

H. H. Pille—I'm in for it. Park's the place for it; it's not fit for anything else, and the expense of a site would be saved.

WHERE TO SAVE AND WHERE TO SPEND.

L. A. Koons—Let's have one with an opera house in it. Instead of spending money on a site, use the park, if we can, and use the money for a theatre, as they did in Wooster.

E. P. Edgar—A city of this size certainly needs something of this kind. I consider the Zepp property the best location.

Paul Kirchhofer—By all means, for humanity's sake, to keep our firemen and horses in decent quarters. Prefer the Park row property for a location.

H. C. Dielhenn—I'm in favor of a city building, and would like to see it placed on the Park row site.

WANTS A THEATRE, TOO.

F. Hookway—Am inclined to be favorable to it, and favor a ground floor opera house with it.

City Treasurer Foltz—Yes, let's have it. Am in favor of park if it can be used; otherwise prefer Park row. Also favor a ground floor opera house in the building.

A. J. Wire—Build a city hall I say. Our present building is a disgrace. I want the ground floor theatre in it, too.

E. B. Bayless—I don't think we need it.

P. G. Albright—The streets ought to be paved, and plenty of other things done before a city hall is built.

Dr. T. C. Miller—A nice city hall would be a nice thing, and the park is the place for it.

HE WANTS AN OPERA HOUSE.

K. F. Erhard—Am in favor of it, and think the south park is the location; also favor a ground-floor opera house in the building.

May or Reed—Ought to have it, surely; I favor the park location.

Peter Sailer—Have been in favor of a city building for five or six years; council chamber is too small; lock-up is a pest hole; we could save rent of all city officials' offices. Let there be a public hall in third story. The park would be the cheapest and best, as well as the most desirable location.

STREET CARS PREFERRED.

Wm. B. Humberger—I would like to see a street railroad before a city hall, although I don't know that I am opposed to the city hall project, rightly carried

Tom Reed, Tom Reed the magnificent, is the kind of a presiding officer the people like.

Talleyrand said, "What I have been taught I have forgotten; what I know I have guessed."

THE INDEPENDENT extends to the Bucyrus Telegraph renewed assurances of its most distinguished consideration. It values the good words of a good contemporary.

Congressman Seney's Democratic paper, the Columbus Post, says that the penitentiary trouble has reached that point when it becomes a necessity that there be a thorough investigation. The Campbells have come.

For the benefit of the subscriber who always wants to know, and who failed to find the word closure in the dictionary, THE INDEPENDENT will say that it is from the French, and means the same as closure—that is, as applied in these days of prolonged deliberation, cutting off of debate. The use of the word is largely an affectation, as English words answer the same purposes.

It is high time for the Republican senators to upset the musty traditions of the senate, governing unlimited debate. When "the greatest parliamentary body in the world" sits in session for thirty hours, not deliberating in fact, or transacting business, but merely victimized by traditions, to the end that a certain measure, offensive to some members, many not come up for disposal, it is time to cry halt. This is a field for action, and the ridiculous conduct of the pompous old senate, is simply preposterous when styled in earnest as "deliberative." Obstructive is the word.

Mr. McKinley, during the campaign, gave us some wholesome truth as to the effect of the tariff on farm products and Canada. Mr. McKinley necessarily had to speak in the future tense, but the Oswego Palladium is able to corroborate his glance ahead, with a statement of fact:

"Mr. Jerry Heagerty arrived home from Canada to-day where he bought 1,000 bushels of potatoes for the Oswego market. The average price paid was 40 cents a bushel. The duty upon the potatoes is 25 cents a bushel and the freight 15 cents a bushel. The potatoes will retail for about 85 cents a bushel. Who pays the duty tax and freight? The Canadian farmer, Mr. Heagerty, or the consumer?"

Mr. Niederinghaus, of St. Louis, is giving congress an object lesson by his display of American tinware, made since the enactment of the McKinley law, and for sale at about the prices heretofore fixed for the British article. THE INDEPENDENT suggests that the most effective campaign document that could be procured, for use when Major McKinley runs for governor, would be a bright tin cup, made out of American tin and fashioned by American hands.

a potent influence. It might be carrying the idea to an extreme, but it would please a great many people, if the Toledo banquet service were all of tin, and American tin, at that. With Major McKinley replying to Grover Cleveland, after a dinner, set out on American tin, the unity of the thing would be complete.

TWO PICTURES.

Cable Dispatch. From Free Trade England.

Cable Dispatch. From Protected France.

LONDON, Jan. 10. — Yesterday afternoon 200 tattered, hunger-pinched men, marched along the Thames embankment; but their stomachs were too empty for fight. This afternoon there have been scores of meetings of the unemployed.

Flags and revolutionary emblems were plenty, and each meeting gathered round a banner bearing the inscription, "We demand the right to labor, and don't intend to starve." The distress in some provincial towns is said to be greater than in London.

At Newcastle-on-Tyne there are said to be "four miles of underground dwellings with dripping wet walls, places into which the light never comes except when filtered through a dark medium." In which live workmen and their families.

PARIS, Jan. 10. — The scenes about the Ministry of Finance in Paris, yesterday morning, were very curious. Subscriptions were to be received at the opening of the offices for the loan of some $170,000,000, offered by the government.

Before daylight the crowd of applicants began to gather. They were of all classes, from the great capitalist's agent to the workmen in blouses and the workmen with braziers huddled in their arms to keep them warm.

The incident tells volumes as to the three characteristics of the French people—their patient and untiring industry, their equally patient and self-denying economy and the confidence in their government.

Health Officer Miller being present, addressed the council, stating that the board of health would object to the closing of the manholes in the East Main street sewer, as recommended by the engineer. He said that by doing so the gas which should escape through the manholes, would pass through the dwellings connected with the sewer, and would cause sickness and death. The more vents the sewer had, the better for the health of the city, and if properly flushed so that decomposition could not take place until the matter reached the point of final discharge, the offensive smell would disappear.

Mr. Clutz stated that neither Mr. Dangler nor Mr. F. H. Snyder could accompany him on his trip, he would ask the council to appoint someone else. President Schlager appointed Mr. Hering.

THE OHIO LEGISLATURE.

Bill Introduced to Oust Ed. Stevens of Tin Tag Fame—Another Election Bill Introduced—Many Other Bills.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 20.—Both branches convened at 4 p. m. Senator Schneider introduced a bill to oust Ed. Stevens, of "tin tag fame," by abolishing the comptroller's office at Cincinnati and giving the mayor power to appoint a city auditor until the next election. Senator Shaw introduced an election bill similar to the one introduced by Senator Brown last week, but is patterned more after the Indiana system. It provides for a non-partisan state board of elections, to be appointed by the governor, and for a non-partisan election board in each county, to be appointed by probate judges. The bill provides how all nominations shall be made and certified to and how various tickets may be put in the field. It provides for a secret ballot. The bill does not effect the present registration laws in cities of 50,000 inhabitants and over, and only indirectly effects the boards of election in the cities. These boards will act as county boards until the expiration of the terms of members when the probate judges appoint boards. In cities between 10,000 and 50,000, such as Akron, Springfield, Zanesville, Youngstown, etc., the election boards are abolished and other election machinery is created.

Bills in the House.

Mr. Weisner, fixing salary of members of boards of election at $25.00 for each regular meeting attended.

Mr. Schuler, providing for the taxation of rolling stock by companies doing business in Ohio, but organized under laws of other states, such as Pullman cars, parlor cars, sleeping cars, chair cars, passenger and freight cars, etc.

Mr. Schuler, prohibiting city councils from amending the charters of natural gas companies, so as to permit the companies to increase the price charged for gas.

Mr. Motter, amending the election laws so as to provide that the secretary of boards of elections shall be appointed by the mayor.

Mr. McDermott, permitting township supervisors of roads to do work on the national road under direction of the county commissioners.

Mr. Price, amending laws governing the penitentiary, so as to provide that contractors at the penitentiary should make settlement with the state on the first of each month, and that the state shall receive not less than $1.50 per day for skilled labor and 75 cents per day for unskilled labor.

Mr. Price, providing for the erection of buildings on the grounds of insane asylums at Toledo, Columbus, Athens, Cleveland and Dayton for the care of epileptic insane, and appropriating $50,000 for such purposes at Dayton and $50,000 for each of the other places.

Mr. Benfer, abolishing the offices of fish and game wardens and delegating the duties of said offices to sheriffs and constables.

Mr. Flumerfelt, providing that wives may testify against husbands in divorce proceedings.

Mr. O'Dowd, extending to village councils the power to compel the erection of gates at railroad crossings.

Mr. Green, amending the law relating to garnishments so as to include among those entitled to exemption the sons of widows whose mothers are dependent upon them for support and also the relative supporting the minor child of a deceased parent.

Mr. Weller, authorizing the village of Urichville to issue $33,000 in bonds to secure the location of railway shops.

Mr. Cutler, providing for the election of a board of directors for the county commissioner and superintendent of insurance.

Mr. Cutler, amending the jury law so as to provide for a verdict in civil cases by a three-fourth vote.

Mr. McKelvey, authorizing St. Clairsville to issue $10,000 in bonds to erect an electric light plant.

Order of Adelphi members are requested to attend the meeting this evening. Thirty-two to be initiated.

G. F. BRECKEL, President.

The want column continues to fulfill its destiny. Every day houses are rented, lots sold, situations obtained, help secured, lost articles recovered and articles found restored.

A COMMITTEE REPORT HEARD BY THE COUNCIL.

Special Tax Ordinances Introduced—Dr. Miller Objects to the Closing of Certain Sewer Vents—The Water Rate Investigating Committee.

The council convened last evening at 7 o'clock, Messrs: Dangler, Strobel and Leu being absent.

The street commissioner's report for the weeks ending Jan. 10 and 17, amounts respectively, $30.75, $30.30 were accepted and the sums credited to his account.

The following ordinances were introduced:

To assess a special tax of 30 cents per foot on all lands abutting South Erie street, between Chester and Dwight streets, for the payment of the lateral sewer, the amount to be paid within ten days, one-third in one year, and one-third in two years, with interest.

To assess a special tax of 85 cents per foot for the payment of the South Erie street sewer, from Oak to Chester streets, to be paid to the city clerk within ten days, or one-third in ten days, one-third in one year, and one-third in two years, with interest.

The committee appointed to select a site for a city building, reported that they had obtained options on the following properties: The Mary McLain Russell property, from Diamond Alley to city property in Park Row, $8,000.00; D. C. Bunnell property, South Erie street, $12,000.00; Zepp property, corner of Mill and Charles streets, $6,500.00; F. Loeffler property, corner of Tremont and Erie streets, $10,000.00; John G. Warwick property, in North Erie street, known as the White mill, $3,500.00. Mr. Hering moved, and it was agreed to, that the report be accepted and the matter laid over until next meeting.

A resolution by Mr. Clutz: That the proposition made by Russell &amp; Co., in relation to Wetmore street, be accepted and the solicitor be instructed to prepare the proper papers and have them signed. Adopted.

Health Officer Miller being present, addressed the council, stating that the board of health would object to the closing of the manholes in the East Main street sewer, as recommended by the engineer. He said that by doing so the gas which should escape through the manholes, would pass through the dwellings connected with the sewer, and would cause sickness and death. The more vents the sewer had, the better for the health of the city, and if properly flushed so that decomposition could not take place until the matter reached the point of final discharge, the offensive smell would disappear.

Mr. Clutz stated that neither Mr. Dangler nor Mr. F. H. Snyder could accompany him on his trip, he would ask the council to appoint someone else. President Schlager appointed Mr. Hering.

THE OHIO LEGISLATURE.

Bill Introduced to Oust Ed. Stevens of Tin Tag Fame—Another Election Bill Introduced—Many Other Bills.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 20.—Both branches convened at 4 p. m. Senator Schneider introduced a bill to oust Ed. Stevens, of "tin tag fame," by abolishing the comptroller's office at Cincinnati and giving the mayor power to appoint a city auditor until the next election. Senator Shaw introduced an election bill similar to the one introduced by Senator Brown last week, but is patterned more after the Indiana system. It provides for a non-partisan state board of elections, to be appointed by the governor, and for a non-partisan election board in each county, to be appointed by probate judges. The bill provides how all nominations shall be made and certified to and how various tickets may be put in the field. It provides for a secret ballot. The bill does not effect the present registration laws in cities of 50,000 inhabitants and over, and only indirectly effects the boards of election in the cities. These boards will act as county boards until the expiration of the terms of members when the probate judges appoint boards. In cities between 10,000 and 50,000, such as Akron, Springfield, Zanesville, Youngstown, etc., the election boards are abolished and other election machinery is created.

Bills in the House.

Mr. Weisner, fixing salary of members of boards of election at $25.00 for each regular meeting attended.

Mr. Schuler, providing for the taxation of rolling stock by companies doing business in Ohio, but organized under laws of other states, such as Pullman cars, parlor cars, sleeping cars, chair cars, passenger and freight cars, etc.

Mr. Schuler, prohibiting city councils from amending the charters of natural gas companies, so as to permit the companies to increase the price charged for gas.

Mr. Motter, amending the election laws so as to provide that the secretary of boards of elections shall be appointed by the mayor.

Mr. McDermott, permitting township supervisors of roads to do work on the national road under direction of the county commissioners.

Mr. Price, amending laws governing the penitentiary, so as to provide that contractors at the penitentiary should make settlement with the state on the first of each month, and that the state shall receive not less than $1.50 per day for skilled labor and 75 cents per day for unskilled labor.

Mr. Price, providing for the erection of buildings on the grounds of insane asylums at Toledo, Columbus, Athens, Cleveland and Dayton for the care of epileptic insane, and appropriating $50,000 for such purposes at Dayton and $50,000 for each of the other places.

Mr. Benfer, abolishing the offices of fish and game wardens and delegating the duties of said offices to sheriffs and constables.

Mr. Flumerfelt, providing that wives may testify against husbands in divorce proceedings.

Mr. O'Dowd, extending to village councils the power to compel the erection of gates at railroad crossings.

Mr. Green, amending the law relating to garnishments so as to include among those entitled to exemption the sons of widows whose mothers are dependent upon them for support and also the relative supporting the minor child of a deceased parent.

Mr. Weller, authorizing the village of Urichville to issue $33,000 in bonds to secure the location of railway shops.

Mr. Cutler, providing for the election of a board of directors for the county commissioner and superintendent of insurance.

Mr. Cutler, amending the jury law so as to provide for a verdict in civil cases by a three-fourth vote.

Mr. McKelvey, authorizing St. Clairsville to issue $10,000 in bonds to erect an electric light plant.

Order of Adelphi members are requested to attend the meeting this evening. Thirty-two to be initiated.

G. F. BRECKEL, President.

A CITIZEN'S SYMPOSIUM.

out. I'm a little afraid that adjoining property owners could restrain the city from erecting a building in the park. No; I do not think that municipal corporations should build theaters.

Tobias Schott—I, too, want to see street cars and good streets before a city hall.

E. S. Craig—I want to see one built, and the park is the right location for it. A ground floor theatre should be included.

Herman Marks—If one is needed it should be built. Favor the Zepp property.

REGARDS IT AS A LUXURY.

Leonard Schworn—I don't think we are greatly in need of a city building.

H. Suhr—Am in favor of a new engine house but not a city hall.

E. J. Wernet—We should have had one long ago, and the sooner it is built the better it will be for the reputation of the city. Favor the Warwick property on North Erie street.

J. C. Haring—Always have been in favor of public improvements and include this project. Feel that the Zepp corner is the best location.

Frank C. Sibila—It's needed and we ought to have it. The Bunnell property, it seems to me, would be the most desirable location.

Joseph Corns—The first business of this city is to get good paved streets—then go ahead with reasonable improvements.

A PRESSING PUBLIC NEED.

John B. Russell—We need a public building the worst kind of a way. If the park can be used for the purpose that's the site.

Dick Powell—Am in favor of the building, and think the Warwick mill property, North Erie street, would be the desirable site; its cheapness commends it.

Jas. Peacock—Favor it and prefer the Park row site.

Jas. H. Hunt—Favor of the building, and prefer Park row.

Chas. Steese—Probably ought to have a city building. Consider the Warwick mill property on North Erie street the best location, and it is the cheapest.

L. M. Taggart—I'd rather see the same money devoted to getting new shops to locate here.

THE PARK IS THE PLACE.

Frank Willenborg—We should use the park for this purpose and have an opera house on the ground floor. Every thing in first class style while we're doing it.

Frank Albright—I'm in favor of any improvement that improves. The park is the place for it.

Harry Pocock—Yes; and we want a theatre in it.

C. Siebold—I would like to see more shops before we get a new city hall. Of course, a public building would be a fine thing, and a theatre on the ground floor would keep down the interest, and cost of maintenance.

Z. T. Baltzy—Not in favor of it at this time. Let's wait and see what comes of bonding the city for manufacturing enterprises.

Harmon Shriver—We can get along without expense.

Project Gribble—Am in favor of the project; it's something the city needs and I would prefer a ground floor opera house and store rooms in connection with it. If Mr. Coleman will join with me, I'll sell my share of the site corner of Main and Mill streets and extending back to Plum street for the purpose.

H. V. Kramer—I say yes, and an opera house on the ground floor. Put it in the south end of the north park.

Chas. Young—Give us the building and put it on the Zepp corner.

MISSED HIS FOOTING.

James Burkhart Falls from the Sixth Story of a New Building.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 20.—James Burkhart, a bricklayer, fell from the sixth story of the new Chittenden hotel yesterday afternoon. He was employed on the building, and, having finished his day's work, had started to descend by way of a short ladder from the roof to the floor of the sixth story. He missed his footing and dashed through the elevator shaft, eighty-five feet to the ground. He was alive and conscious when reached by his companions, but it is thought his injuries will prove fatal.

BUSINESS EMBARRASSMENT.

The jewelry store of S. S. Hathaway was closed late this afternoon to satisfy a chattel mortgage for $2,300, held by Dr. C. F. Porter. A claim for $500, held by a Chicago firm, is also nearly due and in the hands of a local attorney for collection. The Hathaway brothers are deservingly of the sympathy of all who are familiar with their commendable business career, and the hope will be universal that they may recover from their financial embarrassment.

THE FUNNY "KIDS."

Now that Ezra Kendall and the funny "Pair of Kids" show has been caught in the net by Manager Porter, and it is a settled fact that this laughing race will visit Massillon. Laughter lovers, those who enjoy rich, ridiculous nonsense will enjoy the pleasant anticipation of a laughing treat between now and the date fixed for the entertainment, which is Saturday next.

SOME ALLEGED SPORT.

A big crowd of sports went to Jack Boyd's place at Boss Smith's corners last night to hold a cocking main between Canton birds and a number owned by miners in the suburbs. One battle took place for twenty dollars, which satisfied the miners, and the entertainment closed by a battle between two Canton birds.

THE DAY IN CONGRESS.

MR. GORMAN TAKES ISSUE WITH THE VICE PRESIDENT.

The Matter Finally Dropped and the Elections Bill Taken Up, Mr. George Adair, of the Senate—Most of the Session of the House—Was Taken Up by Political Speeches and Assaults Upon the Speaker for Past Rulings—Only One Bill Passed.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—After the reading of the journal in the senate yesterday, Mr. Gorman proceeded to argue against the correctness of a decision of the vice president during Friday's session, to the effect that an appeal from that decision was not debatable, because the question itself on which the decision was made was not debatable. Mr. Gorman admitted that that rule, although in direct conflict with all the authorities, had obtained until 1884, when the rule was modified so as to make it conform to the general parliamentary law, and that under the charge made a question of order might be raised at any stage of a proceeding and should be decided without debate, subject to an appeal to the senate. An appeal taken on any subsequent question of order should be decided without debate. Mr. Edmunds contended that the decision of the chair, on the occasion referred to, was absolutely correct in point of parliamentary law. If the rule was as Mr. Gorman claimed, the senate might be kept in session indefinitely.

The discussion was continued until 12:30, when the consideration of morning business was proceeded with. Several bills were introduced and referred, and at 1 o'clock the elections bill was taken up. Mr. George addressed the senate in opposition to the measure. Mr. George yielded to Mr. Hoar, who moved that the adjournment be till 12 o'clock Tuesday, in order to give senators who desired to attend the funeral of Mr. Bancroft an opportunity to do so. Agreed to. Mr. George resumed the floor and explained and justified his own action in regard to the suffrage clause in the constitution of Mississippi. After having spoken five hours, he yielded the floor without having concluded his speech, and the senate, at 6 p. m., went into executive session and soon afterwards adjourned.

Political Speeches in the House. Mr. Bland, of Missouri, Monday, demanded the reading of Saturday's proceedings in full in the house, instead of in its abbreviated form. The journal being short, its reading consumed very little time. Then Mr. Mills, of Texas, moved an amendment to the journal relative to a refusal of the chair to recognize his motion to reconsider the vote by which Friday's journal was approved. Mr. Cannon demanded the previous question and was recognized by the speaker. A number of Democrats demanded the reading of Mr. Mills' amendment and it was so ordered. Mr. Springer then took the floor under the rule allowing forty minutes' debate after the ordering of the previous question and said that never before the first session of this congress had a motion to reconsider—a privileged motion—been denied by the presiding officer. In the last election, he was pleased to say, the honorable speaker had recognized the great principle of the Right of the People to Rule. The speaker had said in a speech in New York that this was a government of the people, by the people and for the people. Mr. Springer said the speaker had put before the people as a question to be considered his conduct in making his rulings, which he had demonstrated as the turning aside of the precedents of a hundred years, but which he hoped would be the making of precedents for the next hundred years. Speaker Reed then had several extracts from the journal read, showing that Mr. Randall, when speaker of the house, had refused to entertain appeals from his decisions. Mr. Springer retorted that Mr. Randall had been governed by the law, while the present speaker was governed by his will. Mr. McKinley said that nobody would deny that the motion made Saturday by Mr. Mills was purely dilatory and it was

The Duty of the Chair to refuse to entertain it. As to the result of the election, its result would be discussed before the people. When the Democrats had put in public law their own interpretation of their victory, the Republicans would go to the American people on the issues thus made and let the people determine in 1892 which side of the house should continue in control of the United States. Mr. E. B. Taylor, of Ohio, said he was totally opposed to all dilatory measures. He believed them to be wrong in principle, dangerous in their tendency, destructive of government by the people, treasonable in effect and oft times treasonable in purpose. Mr. Enloe, of Tennessee, inquired whether the gentleman, when in the minority, had not filibustered against measures of which he did not approve. The journal was then approved—yeas, 137; nays, 101. The speaker appointed Mr. Geary, of California, as a member of the committee on postoffices and post roads, and at 5:20 the house adjourned.

Two Hundred Pupils in Danger. St. Louis, Jan. 20.—Shaw's school, one of the public schools of this city, was totally destroyed by fire yesterday. Two hundred and fifty children were in the building when the fire was discovered in the basement by the principal, Mrs. Mary Maurie. She ran to all the rooms, ordered recess, and in three minutes the school was emptied and not a child was hurt. Two minutes afterwards the flames had possession of the first floor.

Victory for the Railway Company. Chicago, Jan. 20.—Appearances indicate that the strike of the Milwaukee and St. Paul road's operators will shortly end in victory for the railway company. General Manager Earling's chief clerk says that all but sixty-four of the men are back, and those still out are attempting to regain their old positions. At the strikers' headquarters it is admitted that a number of strikers have returned to work.

In Danger of Starvation. Halifax, N. S., Jan. 20.—A dispatch from Cape Race says the people of Trepassy, N. F., are in a very destitute condition and in danger of starvation. James Butler walked from Trepassy to Cape Race, a distance of forty miles, to obtain enough provisions to keep his

THE INAUGURAL PAGEANT.

Programme of the Ceremonies and the Manner of Installing the New State Officials.

HARRISBURG, PA., Jan. 20.—Complete arrangements have been made for the inauguration of Governor Pattison today. The legislative committee have given out the following programme: The governor, governor-elect, the lieutenant governor, the joint committee of the senate and house of representatives, heads of departments and other invited guests, will meet at the governor's mansion, to proceed thence to the capitol under the following escort: Chief marshal; Ringgold band, of Reading; Eighth regiment, N. G. P.; guard of honor, Governor's troop, the governor, the governor-elect, Hon. Silas M. Clark, and Hon. Henry D. Green, chairman of the inaugural committee, in the first carriage, to be followed by other carriages containing officials and guests.

If the Weather Permits the ceremonies will take place on the west portico of the capitol, otherwise in the hall of the house of representatives, as follows: Prayer by the Rev. S. C. Swallow, D. D.; reading of the certificate of election by the clerk of the senate; oath of office, administered by Hon. Silas M. Clark, judge of the supreme court of Pennsylvania; governor's salute by Arsenal battery; music; inaugural address; benediction; adjournment to the senate chamber; administering the oath to the lieutenant governor and secretary of internal affairs; address by the lieutenant governor-elect; review of the parade from the grand stand at 3 o'clock p. m.

THE PARDON GOVERNOR.

Title Earned by the Retiring Executive of Tennessee.

NASHVILLE, TENN., Jan. 20.—Governor Taylor, who went out of office yesterday, has earned the title of the "pardon governor" and on Saturday pardoned eighteen men. The most notorious is Moskovitz, who was under life sentence for being accessory before the fact to the murder of Meyer Friedman in 1883. This was a noted case. Friedman was literally hacked to pieces with a hatchet by Tom Owens, a negro whom Moskovitz had hired to commit the crime. Moskovitz was in love with Friedman's wife and wanted to get the husband out of the way. Owens was twice tried and finally acquitted, so that for six years Moskovitz has been in prison for hiring Owens to commit a crime that a jury says he did not commit. The records show that Governor Taylor has during his four years pardoned eighty men under sentence ranging from death down to ten days and $50 fine. The list of offences of which they were convicted includes every crime in the calendar.

M'GRATH MUST RETIRE.

More Charges Against the President of the Kansas Alliance.

TOPEKA, KAN., Jan. 20.—The resignation of Frank McGrath, president of the Kansas state alliance, will be requested either today or Wednesday by the executive council of that body. President McGrath was requested to bring before the committee an affidavit from Congressman Turner, Senator Berry and Congressman Perkins, exonerating him from any collusion with Republican leaders. These he either has not attempted to secure or has been unable to do so. A detective was then employed to investigate McGrath's record for the last three months, and it was his report to the committee which has resulted in the alliance president's temporary disgrace. He is charged with having had frequent consultations with Republican leaders, and having made expenditures from alliance funds which were not in the line of his duties as president.

OBSTRUCTIONS ON THE TRACK.

Fifteen Naked Men Hold Up a Train on the Rio Grande Road.

BROWNSVILLE, TEX., Jan. 20.—At noon yesterday the train on the Rio Grande railroad between here and Point Isabel was wrecked and robbed by fifteen masked men. They placed obstructions on the track, derailed the train, held up the passengers and got away with about $20,000 in Mexican money, which was en route for shipment at Brazos by the steamboat Morgan to New Orleans. The ship's mail was also taken and passengers robbed of money and valuables. A brakeman was badly injured in the wreck. The sheriff and a posse are out scouring the country for a trace of the robbers, who are doubtless now safe in Mexico.

FATHER AND SON KILLED.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 20.—A father and son met death together yesterday, at Turtle Creek, on the Pennsylvania railroad. Jacob Walter, aged 49, and his son, Harry, aged 16, were returning from work at the Edgar Thomson works, when they were struck by a train and killed.

NEWS BRIEFLY TOLD.

The latest advices received at London from Chili shows that there is no improvement in the state of affairs in that disturbed republic. Sadulla Pacha, the Turkish ambassador to Austria, who on Thursday last attempted to commit suicide in Vienna, died Monday from his self-inflicted injuries.

Advices from Senegal, in West Africa, state that Commander Archinard, at the head of the French troops, has routed the remnant of the Sultan of Ahmadou forces. The French, it is ascertained, have taken 150 prisoners, among whom are all of the sultan's wives. Signor Luca Francia, a New York barber, is out with a challenge to a slaying, hair-cutting, shampooing, etc., contest against Julius Gabler, late president of the Journeymen Barbers' National Union of America, the match to be for $300 to $1,000 a side, and Richard K. Fox to hold the stake money.

A dispatch from Rio Janeiro says that the constituent assembly, acting in accord with the government, has voted affirmatively on those articles of the new Brazilian constitution regarding federal organization and the powers of the legislative, executive and judicial departments of the new Republican government.

A statistical report from Berlin shows that 280 school children have committed suicide in the six years ending 1889. The most prolific cause of suicide in the elementary schools, where they have occurred more numerous, was the fear of punishment, to which the death of forty-five boys and twenty-three girls is attributed. In the high schools, disappointment at the results of examinations claimed the largest number of victims.

TREACHEROUS WHITES.

THEY WANT ONLY MURDERED OLD FEW TAILS AND PARTY.

This Came Near Ruining Gen. Miles' Plans and Stamping the 5,000 Hostiles—He was the Only Hereditary Chief in the Sioux Nation and the Most Powerful Leader Among His People—The Situation Has Become Quite Complicated and Additional Rations Ordered.

PINE RIDGE AGENCY, S. D., Jan. 20.—When the treacherous whites in Bear Butte county wantonly murdered old Few Tails last week and wounded his squaw they committed an outrage that came near ruining Gen. Miles' plans and stamping the 5,000 hostiles who are in camp here. Few Tails was a relative of Young-Man-Afrad-of-His-Horses, the only hereditary chief in the Sioux nation, and the most powerful leader among his people. Few Tails' wounded squaw arrived here yesterday and almost instantly there was a commotion in the hostile camp. The scouts reported the situation to Gen. Miles, who immediately sent runners after Young-Man. When the chief appeared at headquarters and learned of the ingratitude of the whites for the heroic work he had been doing in their behalf he refused to be pacified, and it took all the diplomacy at the command of Gen. Miles to finally win back the Good Will of the Outraged Chief. The situation has become so complicated that the quartermaster has ordered twenty days' additional rations and the troops that were expected to come to the agency for a grand review have been ordered to remain in camp. This order for rations is as heavy as any that has been issued since the war began. Few Tails was not only a relative of Young-Man-Afrad-of-His-Horses, but a brother of Big Road, one of the most powerful sub-chiefs at Pine Ridge. Big Road said yesterday that thirty cowboys had slaughtered the little band as they were returning unarmed from an eagle hunt, bearing with them Gen. Miles' pass permitting them to be off the reservation, and that the squaw of Few Tails was the only survivor.

JEALOUSY THE CAUSE.

Wilbur F. Barker Shoots His Wife Five Times and Escapes.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Jan. 20.—Mrs. Wilbur F. Barker, teacher at the Bassett street public school, was shot five times yesterday by her husband in the classroom. He drove to the school in a sleigh, with their 16-months-old child in his arms, walked into his wife's classroom and said: "Is this the way you take care of your child?" Mrs. Barker went into the hallway. Her husband followed and fired two shots at her. She reached another class room and then fell on the floor. Barker put the baby on the floor and leaning over his wife fired at her several times, five shots taking effect. Barker then drove rapidly away. The couple have been married about two years, and jealousy on Barker's part is the supposed cause of the tragedy. They only lived together a short time after their marriage. Mrs. Barker was shot three times in the head and face, once through the left hand and once through the left thigh. Barker is about 50 years old and his wife about 30.

RUMOR CAUSED RUIN.

A Bank Failure and Great Excitement at Kansas City.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 20.—The failure of the American National bank, of this city, was announced yesterday. Early in the day runs began on two prominent financial institutions here in consequence of rumors affecting their standing. Rumors and reported failures have created a panic in commercial circles, and other heavy crashes in business are feared.

Commending the Action of Secy. Noble.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Secy. Noble has received a communication from the Catholic missionaries at the Standing Rock Agency commending his action in upholding Major James McLaughlin, the Indian agent there, who they assert has for many years led the Indians peacefully on the road of civilization and has won their confidence so thoroughly that none would do better in his place. They strongly urge his retention. They report everything quiet among the Indians, who are well satisfied with their condition and treatment.

Boomers to Invade the Cherokee Strip.

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 20.—Advices from the northern border of the Cherokee strip are to the effect that the movement to invade the strip is assuming vast proportions. Jan. 29 has been set as the day for the general invasion, but at present the boomers are going into the strip every day in large numbers for the purpose of picking out their claims. At one point 1,000 boomers have assembled and are anxiously awaiting the much longed-for signal to enter the strip.

Three Indian Pupils Killed.

CARLEISLE, PA., Jan. 20.—Capt. R. H. Pratt, manager of the Indian Training school in this city, has received notice through the mails, from Pine Ridge Agency, that White Horse, Little Bull and Mack Kutepi, Carlisle pupils, were killed in one of the recent skirmishes, and that Clayton Brave was wounded.

Governor Buchanan Inaugurated.

NASHVILLE, TENN., Jan. 20.—Governor-elect John P. Buchanan was inaugurated yesterday in the hall of the house of representatives at noon yesterday. Governor Buchanan was formerly president of the State alliance, but was elected to his present office on a Democratic platform.

To Approve Mile's Recommendations.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Indian Commissioner Morgan said yesterday that the interior department would approve the recommendation of Gen. Miles that the Cheyenne Indians, now in Pine Ridge, be removed to their own reservation. The change will be made in the interest of peace.

The Atkinson Bill Signed.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—The president yesterday signed the Atkinson bill to increase the terminal facilities of the Baltimore and Potomac railroad in Washington; also the bill to divide the Sioux Indian reservation in Dakota and

ENGAGEMENT OF JOHN JACOB ASTOR AND MISS WILLING.

New York, Jan. 20.—Notwithstanding the denial by Mrs. William Astor, a few days ago, of the report that her son, John Jacob Astor, was engaged in marriage to Miss Willing, of Philadelphia, the engagement has been formally announced. It will be remembered that the denial was given in Mrs. Astor's own handwriting and was in these words: "The report should be at once contradicted." The report of the formal announcement was published in The Herald yesterday, and was later confirmed by Mrs. Astor in person. This apparent perversion on the part of the acknowledged leader of New York society is easily explained. It will be observed that her denial was carefully and cleverly worded—"the report should be at once contradicted"—for the reason that her husband was abroad and his sanction to the match had not been secured. Since then the mail was brought from Europe, William Astor's written consent and blessing and the formal announcement followed immediately. Thus Pennsylvania obtains a new interest in the Astor millions, while New York society is eagerly discussing its leader's elasticity of conscience in dealing with facts.

BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY OF GEN. R. E. LEE.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 20.—The anniversary of the birthday of Gen. Robert E. Lee was celebrated here yesterday for the first time since it was made a legal holiday in Virginia by the legislature. All the state and municipal offices, schools, banks and nearly all the business houses in the city were closed, and business for most of the day was quite generally suspended. There was a large and imposing parade of the various camps of Confederate veteran organizations in the afternoon, and last night a grand banquet was given by the Lee camp, Confederate veterans.

Met Violent Deaths on the Tracks.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 20.—Two men met with violent deaths on the tracks of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad yesterday in South Baltimore. Joseph Bollinger, a laborer, was struck and killed by an engine which was backing into the Camden station. His head was crushed in and he was also disemboweled. Robert Collingsworth, a conductor of the Baltimore and Ohio, was killed on the trestle work near Reese's furnace, Locust Point. He lived but ten minutes after the accident. Both legs were crushed off at the knees.

Prclamation from the Governor.

HARTFORD, CONN., Jan. 20.—Governor Bulkeley issued a proclamation yesterday afternoon warning the Democratic state candidates from attempting to take offices for which they have not been duly qualified, and commanding all citizens to refuse to recognize their authority. He also declares that he will defend the present officers in the discharge of their duties by all the legal means in his power until their successors are duly qualified.

THE NICELYS MUST HANG.

The Death Warrants Signed Yesterday by Governor Beaver.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 20.—The death warrants of David and Joseph Nicely, the Somerset county murderers, were signed yesterday by Governor Beaver. They will be hanged on Thursday, April 2, 1891.

Machine Miners Refuse a Reduction.

TERRE HAUTE, IND., Jan. 20.—Two hundred machine miners in the Jackson Hill mine, in Sullivan county, went out on strike yesterday. They refused to accept a cut of 50 cents per day. The mine was only recently opened by a company, at the head of which is President D. J. Mackey, of the Evansville and Terre Haute railroad. The strike promises to be a stubborn one.

Schooner Maggie Gray Wrecked.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 20.—Messrs. Gray, Irelan & Co., ship brokers, yesterday received a cable from Capt. Johnson, of the schooner Maggie E. Gray, at Jamaica, stating that the schooner has been wrecked. The Gray sailed from Grand Cayman for Baltimore with a cargo of 540 tons of guano. Capt. Johnson makes no mention of loss of life.

Trial of Charles E. Kincaid.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—The case of Charles E. Kincaid, indicted for murder by shooting ex-Congressman Taulbee, of Kentucky, at the Capitol last February, came up yesterday in the criminal court. On application of Senator Voorhees, one of the counsel for Kincaid, March 16 next was fixed as the date for beginning the trial.

Pottery Employees Strike.

FINDLAY, O., Jan. 20.—The employees of the Bell Pottery company, of this city, went on strike yesterday afternoon because of a reduction in wages. One hundred men and women are out.

President Harrison Grants a Pardon.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 20.—President Harrison has pardoned John M. McKee, received from Toledo, Jan. 3, 1890, on five years' sentence for embezzling funds of a national bank.

American Quail for Germany.

DAYTON, O., Jan. 20.—Quail are being wintered in coops here from which a dozen pair are to be sent in March by friends to Dr. William F. Ery, of Oberkirchen, Germany, to gratify his desire for the honor of introducing American quail in that country. He will do this by first stocking his own lands with the Ohio birds. Dr. Ery was a surgeon in the United States army during the Mexican war, lived in Dayton for many years, and is passionately fond of all field sports. Two years ago a brace of well-trained Irish setter dogs were sent to him from Dayton.

Saloonist Probably Fatally Injured.

MARTIN'S FERRY, O., Jan. 20.—Ex-Policeman David Gosney and his son, Harry, entered Andy McEntee's saloon to whip him for having the former arrested, and young Gosney struck McEntee in the stomach with a cask, causing serious, if not fatal, injury. McEntee's wife appeared or he would have used his revolver.

To Revoke a Gas Company's Charter.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 20.—An ordinance was introduced in the city council of Columbus to revoke the charter of the Columbus gas company, because they had failed to supply gas. At the request of the company a committee was appointed to investigate the company's wells.

STRONG BOXES THESE.

PLACES WHERE NEW YORK CRO-SUSES STORE THEIR VALUABLES.

The Hard Money of the United States.
Where is it?—Why, in the Vaults Here Described, and Locked in, Too, with Wonderful Locks.

[Special Correspondence.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—The bankers,
the government officers and the men
who control the clearing house in New York have been doing a great deal of figuring lately, that they may discover
what becomes of a good deal of the hard money of the United States. They know just how much gold and silver has been
coined, how much is held by the treas-

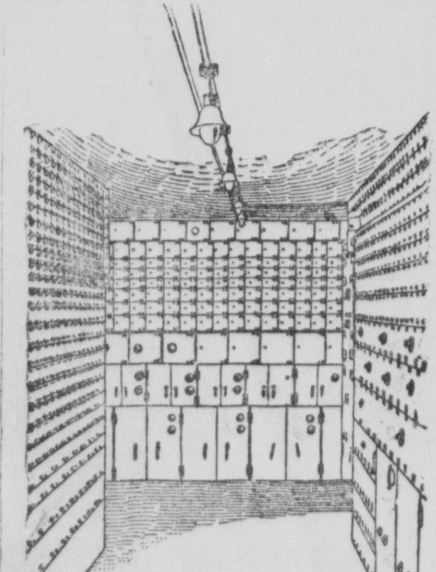

WHERE THE VANDERBILT TREASURE IS.
ury department and how much by the banks, and they have discovered that between the actual amount coined or in existence and that which can be accounted for there is a discrepancy of
some fifty or sixty millions of dollars.
The secretary of the treasury, Mr. Windom, Jay Gould, Russell Sage and the president of the New York clearing house all assert that it will be useless to try to hunt for this missing amount of gold, because it is all hidden away by thrift men who put their faith in gold
alone, and who want it where they can get it, and by misers throughout the country who are hoarding it in stockings
or old trunks.

The greatest amount of gold, probably, is hoarded right in New York city,
and in places where burglars can neither
break through and steal, nor moth and rust corrupt. Nothing short of an earthquake or the conquest of New York by a foreign power could get this gold from the place where it is securely hidden. It is stowed away in the mysterious vaults
of various safe deposit companies, and no one excepting he who has put it in its hiding place knows where it is or how to get at it.

Gold is carried into the vaults secretly,
but within the past six months a vast amount of silver bars has been lodged
in one of the safe deposit vaults, and put
there openly in the view of thousands who pass up and down Broadway. It is taken on trucks, like a load of pig iron,
and is handled as carelessly, for its weight
would make it impossible for any thief to carry away a bar without detection.

Besides these hoardings, these vaults
contain the accumulated wealth of a personal nature of all the millionaires of New York city. They no longer leave their stocks and bonds in their office or
house safes, but take them to the vaults.
In many of the vaults are kept the family jewels and the expensive plate of gold and silver—this last being taken to the homes whenever an entertainment
is to be given, and returned at once to its place of safety in the vaults. Hundreds of millions of dollars are kept in these places of security, and some most interesting tales might be told of the customs of men of wealth in visiting the vaults and counting their wealth. Probably the most interesting place is the vaults of the deposit company which contain the enormous wealth of the Vanderbilts, in stocks and bonds, and
much of that of Jay Gould, Russell Sage, the Astors, ex-Mayor Grace and many other men known as New York's millionaires. These vaults are opposite

THE HIDING PLACE OF UNTOLD WEALTH.
the headquarters of the New York Central railroad on Forty-second street, and
were built under the eye of William H.
Vanderbilt.

In the accompanying cut is a representation of what is known as "the Vanderbilt corner" of these vaults. When William H. Vanderbilt, or when his sons—Cornelius, William K. and Frederick—desire to add to or take from their
enormous deposits of stocks they are admitted into the prisonlike compartment
which is indicated by the massive bars.
When inside the door is shut and locked,
and they are virtual prisoners. They cannot get out until an attendant opens
the door, but no burglar, assassin or thief could get in. The chair indicated
is a representation of the one which William H. Vanderbilt caused to be placed there, and at a little table beyond
he used frequently to count his massive pile of stocks and bonds. The compartments are indicated by the numbers over
the smaller doors within.

William H. Vanderbilt was not so secretive in examining his wealth as are his sons. He used to open one of the doors, draw out a great pile of bonds,

spread them on the table before him, and
in full view of the attendants, and make
his computations, half muttering to himself as he did so, or else cut off his counsels by a nervous snap of a large pair of shears which he kept in the desk. The large compartment within now contains
much of the wealth of Cornelius Vanderbilt, and the one adjoining it many of the millions of William K. A smaller compartment nearer the floor contains
the fortune of the student, George Vanderbilt, and he, of late, has been one of the frequent visitors, as he has been
drawing on his fortune to build his luxurious place in the mountains of North Carolina. About once in so often the Vanderbilt boys, averaging six times a year, visit the vaults to deposit new
bonds and stocks, representing accessions
to their wealth.

In this corner alone there is property
representing not far from $300,000,000.
It was in this golden cell that William H. Vanderbilt wrote his famous check for $6,000,000—the largest individual check ever given up to that time. After he had written it he said to a financier
who was with him, representing the original West Shore interests, "I could duplicate that check at this moment, if necessary," showing that at that time he had $12,000,000 at least in cold cash.

The accompanying cut represents another dark cell in this safe deposit company's vaults, containing a large number of small boxes rented to individuals, who alone hold the keys, as well as some larger boxes. The large box in the lower right hand corner is always hired by Adelina Patti when she is in this country. She usually stays at a neighboring hotel, and the first thing she does after
the vexations of the custom house are ended is to take her jewels to this vault.
At her last visit here she brought jewels
valued at $600,000, and these were deposited in this box, which is made of chilled steel, within twelve hours after her arrival.

When she was to appear in opera or in concert she sent her trusted servant, accompanied by a policeman, to the vault,
and he selected the jewels which she desired to wear on that evening. After the opera was over the jewels were deposited in the safe of the hotel over night,
and as early as possible in the morning
were sent back under guard to the vault.
But strangely enough when Patti started
on her tours through the country she
left her jewels in this place of safety,

A WONDERFUL DOOR.

which causes a suspicion to arise that
her ornaments elsewhere in the country
possessed little intrinsic value.

The large box just above the Patti box
was hired by Marie Hilton, the opera
singer, who caused a sensation a year or two ago by quitting the stage without
notice and eloping with a diamond merchant of London. She returned in some six months and went again upon the stage. The day after her return she hired this box, and deposited in it jewels
which she thought were worth a hundred thousand dollars. These jewels
were kept there during her engagement,
and it was a delight to the attendant to
see this pretty and vivacious woman occasionally call, demand admittance into
this golden cell, that she might take a look at her jewels and add to them some crisp new bonds, representing her increasing wealth.

Lillian Russell has one of the smaller
boxes, but she does not visit it very of-
ten. Side by side with Patti's box is one in which a good deal of Jay Gould's wealth is placed. This wizard of finance occasionally comes in in a timid, modest
sort of way, and opening his box takes
from it a bundle of bonds or stocks and
then retires to a secret compartment,
which is not indicated in the picture,
where for some moments the exultant
noise of scissors clipping coupons is to be heard. Ex-Mayor Grace has a box
on the same side, as have Russell Sage,
Commodore Van Santvoort and William Waldorf Astor. This vault is so strong and so absolutely burglarproof that the light of day never penetrates it. It is lighted by electricity.

The entrance to these great vaults is guarded by a door of exquisite workmanship, most intricate in construction
and so massive as to be able to withstand even a discharge of artillery. It is indicated in the picture. On a recent visit to New York Cardinal Gibbons,
being desirous to see the place where
such enormous stores of wealth were kept, was shown these vaults, the Vanderbilt chair and desks and boxes of distinguished persons. But what interested the cardinal most was this door. He stood for some moments surveying it
with admiration, and then said to ex-Postmaster General James, who is the chief officer of the institution, "It makes me think of the old couplet, which I will take the liberty of slightly changing:

"Man's ingenuity for man Makes countless burglars mourn."
E. J. EDWARDS.

A French bride must invest in two
wedding dresses—one to wear at the signing of the contract and the other to the

few days later.

GOVERNOR HILL CALLED.

THE JOINT CAUCUS NOMINATE HIM
FOR SENATOR.

All of the State Officials and Others were Present—Speaker Sheehan Made a Nice Address, and, After Other Speeches, Moved the Nomination be
by Acclamation, which was Carried—Senator Evans Unanimously Renominated by the Republican Caucus.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 20.—The Democratic joint caucus to nominate a United States senator was called to order in the assembly chamber shortly after 5 o'clock
yesterday afternoon. All of the Democratic state officials and others were present. Nominations being in order, Speaker Sheehan said: "The Democratic party to-day proposes to signal-
ize the great victory of November last
by nominating for senator in congress a leader of genius and courage, a statesman of breadth and capacity, a man
who more than any other contributed to Democratic supremacy. When victory
seemed impossible, when defeat
stared us in the face, there was one
voice above all others that penetrated
the heart of the people, one who stood in the front of battle, heedless of personal or political consequences, encouraging with his presence and convincing with his eloquent tongue, the electorate of our land. It is only by rewarding men who battle for Democratic principles in darkness as well as in sunshine that our party deserves to succeed." After other speeches, Mr.
Sheehan moved Governor Hill's nomination by acclamation, which was carried,
and the caucus adjourned.

Senator Evans Renominated.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 20.—The Republican caucus was called to order in the senate chamber at 6 o'clock by Senator
Vedder, who said that by a mysterious
dispensation of Providence a change
had been made not unprecedented, but
one from which the American people
had always risen and from which the Republican party would rise now.
Senator Fassett, in placing the name of William M. Evans before the caucus, said: "At all times Senator Evans has been loyal and devoted to the best traditions of the Republican party. Scandal had never stained the ermine of his reputation and his strength was never drawn from questionable sources. Senator Evans was unanimously renominated.

GOULD'S MILLIONS SAFE.

His Sons will Not Risk Them on the Race Course.

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—Since the death
of August Belmont two reports have been circulated, the significance of which was the proposed debut of Jay Gould's family as prominent figures on the turf. The first report was to the effect that Mr. Gould's youngest son was to purchase Mr. Belmont's entire stables. Mr. Gould's youngest son is but 10 years old, and the famous stable
was later sold at auction. The next report was that George Gould, the oldest son, proposed to purchase the nursery
and including St. Blaise, and the entire list of brood mares owned by the late banker and located on his farm in Kentucky. George Gould denied emphatically that he had any such intention, and added that he cared nothing
for the turf or race horses. This seems to remove Jay Gould's millions from the possibilities of the track.

FOR THE BENEFIT OF FIREMEN.

The Executive Committee of the State Association Considering Two Bills.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 20.—The executive committee of the State Firemen's association is in session here. The committee is now considering two bills to be submitted to the legislature. One proposes that 1 per cent. of the 2 per cent. tax imposed on foreign insurance companies on premiums collected in this state be set aside for the pensioning
of firemen who have been disabled in
the service, and the other looks to the establishment of an insurance system in the interest of disabled firemen.

Feels Better.

"Are you happier since your second marriage?" he asked of his friend as they rode down town on a Broadway car.

"Oh, much happier."
"Then it was a case of love?"
"Exactly, the same as with my first,
but there is this difference—I feel more settled."

"In your mind?"
"Yes, and all other ways. It was never quite clear in my first venture who ran
the horse, but in this case everything is plain sailing and no occasion for dispute."

"She knuckled, eh?"
"Oh, no; she's boss."—New York Sun.

A Trick That Did Not Work.
Conjuror—You see, ladies and gentlemen, the dollar has vanished. We shall soon find out where it has gone. You,
honest countryman, over there, just put your hand in your coat pocket! I bet
you'll find the dollar.

Peasant—No; I've only got two marks
and eight pennings!
"Impossible. You must have the dollar!"

"No, I haven't! That was a dollar
you put in my pocket a while ago, but I've been out to have a drink since then."
Tableau.—Generalanzeiger.

His Great Need.

Parent—You wish to marry my daughter?
Suitor—Yes, sir; that is the object of
my visit.

"What means of support have you?"
"I have no actual cash, but I have something very profitable almost in view."

"Then what you need is not a wife so much as a spy glass."—Black and White.

It Was Possible.

A traveler who was known to exaggerate once related at an inn how he,
along with two others, made 150 of the enemy run.

Of course nobody believed him, but
one of the company remarked after a pause:

"The thing is natural enough. The three gentlemen ran, and the 150 enemies ran after them."—Eulenspiegel.

IN THE DANUBE RIVER.

The subjoined lines, written by Miss Kittie Dunlap, a fourteen-year-old pupil
in the East street school, were inspired by a recent news article in The Independent covering a foreign accident, and
are exceedingly creditable.

The stars were shining brightly,
The moon rose full and clear,
The ice was sparkling lightly,
What did they need to fear?
To a few who lingered fondly,
Upon the beautiful shore,
They called in merry voices,
As they called in days of yore.

"Pray come upon the river,
And dance all the night long,
O, come upon the river,
For the night was made for song!
The ice is clear and sparkling,
Neath yonder city's light,
Come, glide upon the river,
This loveliest of nights."

So, gliding o'er the river,
With hearts so light and gay,
Their merry voices sounding,
Like music's sweetest lay,
The clear, white ice was sparkling,
Like jewels of the fair,
Such as a southern duchess,
Would wear in her dusky hair.

But hark, that shriek of horror!
The voices once so gay,
Were shrieking in the gloomy,
Of a terrible dismay
No more they sing, come, come a way,
And dance the whole night long,
Pray come upon the river,
For the night was made for song."

"O, rescue me," cried a fair young maid,
Whose heart had once been light,
"O pitying angels, rescue me,
On this awfulest of nights!
The moon is shining clearly,
The stars are in the sky,
O, pitying angels, rescue me,
I cannot bear to die!"

Though many stood upon the shore,
Yet they were helpless all,
To the many who were dying,
And to heed that maiden's call,
For those who had been merry,
Neath Austria's lovely sky,
Were doomed that lovely evening,
By the hand of death, to die.

Morn came in all its beauty,
Yet sadly did it glow,
O'er the many saddened spirits,
An broken heart's benighted glow,
The Danube still sped onward,
In its course to the Southern sea,
"O'er, beautiful river,
How many sleep in thee!"

'Twas done!
No more on that beautiful night,
Did the merry voices cry,
About the sparkling of the ice,
Or the bright stars in the sky,
And those who escaped will often think,
When the moonbeams brightly gliver,
Of the many gay ones who peacefully sleep,
In the beautiful Danube river.

—KITTIE DUNLAP,
East street school, Jan. 16, 1891.

What Makes Money Tight.

Everybody wants to know "What Makes Money Tight?" The clearest,
most concise and plainest answer to the question is made by Edward Atkinson,
the famous statistician of Boston, in an editorial contribution to Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper. Next week he will tell "What Makes Panics." The Independent Company.

Tried and True

Is the verdict of the people who take Hood's Sarsaparilla. When used according to directions the good effects of this excellent medicine are soon felt in nerve
strength restored, that tired feeling
driven off, a good appetite created, headache and dyspepsia relieved, scrofula
cured and all the bad effects of impure
blood overcome. For a good blood purifier, take Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Remarkable Rescue

Mrs. Michel Curtin, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught
cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her that she was a hopeless victim of consumption
and that no medicine could cure her.
Her Druggists suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; she bought
a bottle and to her delight found herself
benefited from first dose. She continued
its use and after taking ten bottles, found herself sound and well. Now does her own housework and is well as she ever
was.—Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at Z. T. Baltzly's Drug Store. Large bottles 50c. and $1.00.

A Blessing to Humanity

This is what N. H. Andrews, a prominent citizen of Springfield, O., says: "It affords me great pleasure to assure my friends that I have received both immediate and permanent relief of threatened, bronchial and asthmatic trouble in the use of Dr. Acker's English Remedy. It is certainly a good honest medicine and a blessing to humanity." The above
preparation we sell on a positive guarantee; it has given better satisfaction
than any other remedy we have ever
sold. J. M. Schuckers, E. S. Craig, druggists, Massillon, O.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,

Happy Hoosiers

Wm. Timmons, Postmaster of Idaville,
Ind., writes: "Electric Bitters has done
more for me than all other medicine combined, for that bad feeling arising from Kidney and Liver trouble." John Leslie,
farmer and stockman, of same place, says
"Find Electric Bitters to be the best Kidney and Liver medicine, made me feel like a new man." J. W. Gardner,
hardware merchant, same town, says:
"Electric Bitters is just the thing for a man
who is all run down and don't care
whether he lives or dies; he found new strength, good appetite and felt just like he had a new lease on life! Only 50c. a bottle, at Z. T. Baltzly's Drug Store. 2
